What's Happening In January

WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE

Legendary rockers Guns N' Roses are sure to bring you to your knees when they rock the John Labatt Center on January 25. The concert is part of their Chinese Democracy World Tour, which kicked off in Asia on December 11 and is in support of the multiplatinum album of the same name. It is the first of 13 shows planned in Canada, with more dates to be announced.

NIAGARA ICE WINE FESTIVAL

The Niagara region will be transformed into a winter wonderland of celebration and festivities for the 15th Annual Niagara Ice Wine Festival. The festival begins with the Annual Xerox Icewine Gala, showcasing wines from more than 25 of Ontario's wineries, including one of the area's most cherished products, Icewine. Activities include ice sculpting, tours of several of the area's wineries, and offerings of local cuisine. The festival runs from January 15 through 24 and is a must for all wine connoisseurs.
